

AFA Chapter 398, Executive Council Meeting Minutes
January 9, 2019

Attendees:

Joe Kenago	Mark Chapman
Gil Perez	Fred Gross
John Mahaffey	Rick Soria
Jim Connors	Susan Ault-Davis

Chapter 398 End of Year Activities

- Financial audit for 2018 has been completed
- Tentative schedule for Chapter 398 activities has been posted

Air Force Wounded Warrior

- Air Force Wounded Warriors will be training at Hurlburt Field During April 15 – 19
- Expecting 200 participants
- Volunteers will be needed. Jim Connors has asked Chapter members to reserve these dates to ensure full support
- POC is Eddie Arroyo

Aerospace Education

- Teacher's Workshop will be at the Doolittle Institute in Niceville on Feb 20th
 - o There will be inter-active kiosks set up for participants to enjoy
 - o Several workshops will teach simple software coding projects
- Teachers attending workshop will be asked to volunteer to support Legacy Camps. There will be 10 of them this coming summer.
 - o Fred Gross will make certificates for Legacy Camp attendees
 - o Need volunteers to be guest speakers (cyber career fields)
- Volunteers are needed to work with Elementary school children participating in a robotic competition
- POC is Rick Soria

Science Fair

- Will be held on Wednesday, January 30th at 1600
- Need one more volunteer – will check with Eddie Arroyo

- AFA Judges will look at aerospace, computers, STEM and engineering projects
- Jim Connors will attend the awards ceremony on Tuesday, February 5, 2019 at Saint Mary's Catholic School Gymnasium at 6:00pm
- POC is Rick Soria

Miscellaneous

- FL State AFA Meet will be March 1 – 2, in Orlando
- AFA/ACA Luncheon is being planned for the end of March – Guest Speaker will be Lieutenant General Webb

Next Meeting

- Next meeting will be at Mama Nu's, February 13th, at 1130